Benefits for your organisation

A team of HP experts by your side

Ensure repairs are performed by those who know your devices best – HP Certified Technicians. Know your hardware is expertly serviced so you can free up time to focus on other IT priorities.

Increased device uptime

Keep devices running smoothly and address repair issues quickly with efficient service and support that helps boost employee productivity.

Lower, more predictable IT costs

Knowing device service costs up-front limits last-minute expenses. Experience lower and more predictable IT costs by pairing Care Packs with your devices from the start.

A proactive business approach

No need to waste time finding suitable replacement parts, spending more money on urgent repairs, or leaving devices at service centres for weeks. Avoid surprises and rest easy knowing you're covered.

A range of coverage options for your unique needs

Faster repair response

Get back to work fast with an array of support services including Call-to-Repair¹, Hardware Support Onsite Service, and Next Business Day Hardware Support for Travelers.

Enhanced protection

Don't let accidents get in your way. Protect against drops, spills, and power surges with Accidental Damage Coverage, as well as other services like One-Time Battery Replacement and Defective Media Retention¹.

Warranty extension

Extend your PC's coverage beyond your base warranty with optional, flexible service extension plans of varied durations and levels².

Protect against device failure while traveling at home or abroad, and get back to business fast with prompt remedial services or Next Business Day Onsite support².

Minimise business travel stress knowing that your device can be repaired in more than 80 countries. Add optional Accidental Damage Protection¹ to cover damage from drops and spills.

HP Defective Media Retention Service

Maintain control of defective hard drives to meet your security standards.

Keeping your hard drive when it requires replacement is critical to maintaining control of your sensitive data and ability to disposition it in a way that meets your security standards.

Sometimes, even the best storage media can fail, and if it does, don't send your confidential data to a remote facility. Keep it right where it is.

The HP Defective Media Retention Service is ideal if you need to control and secure proprietary and confidential data or if you're subject to data privacy regulations².

Coverage that extends beyond your PCs

Displays and accessories connect us to our devices and are key to efficient work environments. Keep them running smoothly with coverage for docking stations, displays, and more.

Boost your PC support strategy with HP as your service partner.
